

TRICK RIDING CAMP

Equestrian specialty arts are the founding disciplines in circus entertainment. This clinic will offer students a chance to try various riding disciplines found in circuses and stunt work.

Veronica Painter has been an equestrian and horse trainer since childhood. Her traditional riding foundation grew into her circus career upon her discovery of equestrian circus arts. For the past 7 years Veronica has performed in various circuses, rodeos, amusement parks, and renaissance fairs covering various equine stunt disciplines including trick riding, bareback riding, Roman riding, bridleless riding, liberty, trick training, and jousting. Prior to her performing career, Veronica excelled in riding instruction and now fuses her passion for teaching and performing into one. Bringing her equipment, performance horses, education and experience, Veronica comes to offer a rare opportunity! No horse, acrobatic, or riding experience is necessary and all ages are welcome. The only thing required is tight athletic clothing and gym shoes! If you love horses and the dream of running away with the circus, then don't miss this once in a lifetime opportunity!
